2 Charlotte and Bethany are talking about winter sports and deciding on two sports that they want to do. Look at the table and complete the dialogue with the comparative or superlative forms of the words.

Winter sports	Difficult	Exciting	Dangerous	Price
Tobogganing	■■■■■■■	■■■■■■■	■■■■■■■	10 euros / hour
Skating	■■■■■	■■■■■	■■■■■	8 euros / hour
Ski jumping	■■■■■■■■■	■■■■■■■■■	■■■■■■■■■	28 euros / hour
Cross-country skiing	■■■■■	■■■■■	■■■■■	16 euros / hour

Bethany: So, we can choose two sports from the website. What do you think?

Charlotte: I love cross-country skiing, but it's expensive. Tobogganing is fun, too and I think it's ¹ more exciting.

Bethany: The website says that tobogganing is ² _____ than cross-country skiing, so I don't really want to do that. Is cross-country skiing difficult?

Charlotte: I did cross-country skiing and tobogganing last year and I think tobogganing is ³ _____.

Bethany: OK, I prefer safe and easy! So our number one is cross-country skiing. What about number two?

Charlotte: Hmm. I really want to try ski jumping.

Bethany: That's dangerous!

Charlotte: I know! The website says it's the ⁴ _____ sport, but I think it's really exciting, too.

Bethany: But, look, it's also the ⁵ _____ sport. 28 euros! And, to be honest, I'd like something easier.

Charlotte: Really? OK, then skating is perfect for you.

Bethany: Good idea. So our choices are cross-country skiing and skating.

Charlotte: No, Bethany, you can do the most boring sport if you want. I'm choosing the ⁶ _____ - ski jumping!
