

Unit	Unit Title	Topic	Grammar structure	Vocabulary
1	The guessing game	Materials	To be made of What's it made of? It's made of (card). Is it made of (metal)?	Materials card, gold, metal, plastic, wool, paper
Reading and Writing Skills Practice Page 11
2	The lazy camping song	Sports and leisure	Past continuous: background actions I was looking at (the butterflies). I was whistling a tune.	Camping activities (lie) in the grass, whistle a tune, fog, butterflies, fetch the bags, write postcards, eat cereal, walk the dog, put up the tent
Reading and Writing Skills Practice Page 15
3	Things that make me happy	Adjectives	To make somebody / something + adjectives (This) makes (me) happy. (Finding the nest) made (me) excited. (Snowboarding) makes (me) happy.	Activities play the guitar, write in my diary, bird's nest, take photos, swan, snowboarding, plant flowers, grow, the sun sets
Reading and Writing Skills Practice Page 19
4	Accidents happen	Sports and leisure	Past continuous and past simple: interrupted actions I was (climbing up a tree) when I (fell and broke my arm). He was (walking through a wood) when he (stepped into a hole and cut his knee).	Adventures in the outdoors and accidents fall, break (an arm), wood, cut my knee, stones, ground, stream, toe, cave, step into, hole, elbow, sore
Reading and Writing Skills Practice Page 23
5	There's a bear!	World around us	Past continuous: questions and short answers, What were you doing when (the bear appeared)? Were you (playing the guitar) when (the bear appeared)? Yes, I was. / No, I wasn't.	At the campsite and accidents fire, camp, torch, bear, wild animal, swing, gate, cook sausages
Reading and Writing Skills Practice Page 27
6	Let's protect our planet	World around us	Using should / shouldn't We should (keep our oceans clean). We shouldn't (pollute the seas).	Looking after the environment planet, air, protect, ocean, pollute, turn the lights on/off, cycle, insects, creatures, extinct, environment
Reading and Writing Skills Practice Page 31
7	Be good to the environment	World around us	If clauses: zero conditional If we (recycle rubbish), everybody (wins). If we (drive cars) every day, it causes (air pollution).	Looking after the environment recycle, rubbish, bin, repair, get a lift, throw away, look after, broken, use
Reading and Writing Skills Practice Page 35
8	I want to be an astronaut	Transport	Using will / won't for predictions: affirmative and negative We will all be (astronauts). There won't be any (night or day).	Space travel astronaut, star, journey, space ship, rocket, space, land, Mars, moon, thousand, kilometre
Reading and Writing Skills Practice Page 30
9	How will people travel?	Transport	Using will / won't for predictions: questions and short answers How will people (travel) fifty years from now? I don't know. Will there be (taxis)? Yes / No.	Travel in the future motorway, invent (v), machine, railway, taxi, fast (adj/adv), noisy travel, clean, safe
Reading and Writing Skills Practice Page 43

Unit	Unit Title	Topic	Grammar structure	Vocabulary
10	Let's go birthday shopping	Family and friends	Using might / may / could for possibility I might buy some (shoes). I may buy a (chess set). I could buy some (shampoo).	Shopping for a birthday present spotted (belt), pyjamas, puzzle, pop/rock music, CDs, striped (shirt), chess set, cheap, expensive, ticket (for a football match), poster, dark (blue shoes), shampoo, light (green socks)
Reading and Writing Skills Practice Page 47
11	What does it smell like?	Materials	What does it (smell) like? It tastes like (honey). It smells like (soap). It sounds like a (drum). It feels like (wool).	Sensations smell, sound, taste, feel, soap, violin, drum, jam, honey, wool, hear, touch, once, twice
Reading and Writing Skills Practice Page 51
12	The online lesson	School	Present perfect with already and yet + regular past participles Have you turned on the (camera) yet? (Yes), I've already (opened the file).	An online lesson camera, turn on/off, microphone, log on/off, website, read the text, open a file, chat box, download a video
Reading and Writing Skills Practice Page 55
13	Everyday objects, useful things	The home	Tag questions with have and can You've got a (key), haven't you? You can (open the door), can't you?	Everyday objects key, comb, pocket, drawer, knife, fork, spoon, stamp, envelope, letter, scissors, dictionary, magazine, piece
Reading and Writing Skills Practice Page 59
14	Are your hobbies cool?	Time	Present perfect with for and since + irregular/regular past participles I've had (that rabbit) for (a long time). I've known (him) since (we started school).	Leisure activities have a pet, be in a pop group, be in a club, play golf, after-school club
Reading and Writing Skills Practice Page 63
15	Sorry I haven't called you	The home	Present perfect with just I've just repaired my (bicycle). I've just arrived in (town).	Past participles of regular and irregular verbs repair, break, finish, sell, end, speak, arrive, meet, spend, prepare
Reading and Writing Skills Practice Page 67
16	Things I've never done	The world around us	Present perfect with ever / never + regular/irregular past participles I've never seen the (pyramids). Have you ever (won a game of chess)?	Life experiences see the sights, met a king/queen, find a missing ring, have an x-ray, eat octopus, have a surprise party, play the drums, win a game of chess, pyramid
Reading and Writing Skills Practice Page 71
17	Where do you want to go?	Sports and leisure	Using could for making suggestions We could (ride a camel). We could (go to London).	Holiday experiences explore (the desert), ride (a camel), visit (the pyramids), watch (a concert), see (a dinosaur) in the museum, eat (a delicious meal), play (volleyball) on the beach, snowboard/ski down (a mountain), build (a snowman)
Reading and Writing Skills Practice Page 75				